HENS CRUSH BUSSEI FOR JAAU TITLE

Madokoro Gathers 16 Points, Is Star For Victors

[Special to Japanese American News]
ALAMEDA, Apr. 2.—The local Mudhens defeated the Bussel here Friday night at the high school gym in a tilt that decided the Eastbay JAAU title by the score of 30-19 before an estimated gathering of 250 cage fans.

The game started slow, with both sides feeling the tensesness that prevails in the atmosphere of every title game. The initial half ended with the count 9-4 in favor of the student club.

Bussel Starts
Bussels were the first to hit their stride, as soon as the Bussel started their drive, it seemed to provide the spark that set off the fireworks—both sides started to drop the eggst through the hoop with the Mudhens keeping slightly ahead.

The steady stream of Mudhen reserves seemed to wear the Bussel out, who lacked subs. Towards the finish of the tilt, the Mudhens scored at will.

Madokoro Stars
Friday night's hero was undoubtedly Madokoro, who has been playing nice ball all along but never seemed to have the class to break into the starting lineup. He may not have been a starter but before he finished, Bussel certainly wished that he had never played at all for he caged 16 points to steal the show. The lineups follow:

MUDHENNS (30) BUSSEI (19)
S. Miki 10f. Mikami (3)
Imura (2) If. Nakano (3) Yoshino (4) c. Nogami (9)
T. Miki (3) ry. Iwahashi Kanzaki lg. Maruyama (2)
Subs: Mudhens, Madokoro 16, Hanamura, Kikuchi 3.
Bussel, Kinoshita 2, Nakayama, Takeda.

QUIZ SHOWS 150 CITIZENS

Estimates Announced
For City by Local Association

About 150 American citizens of Japanese parentage are of voting age in a Japanese population of approximately 9000 in San Francisco, it was announced Saturday in the local Japanese association following a survey conducted recently.

Out of this number, about 100 Japanese citizens are registered in the 1930 census.

According to official government figures there were 6184 Japanese residents in this city in 1930. This figure does not represent the actual number of Japanese in San Francisco as a large number have not registered.

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

600 HELD BY ART OF DIVA MISS INOUYE

Encore, Praise Given Soprano in Con- cert in S. F.

Before an audience estimated at 600 people, Miss Kyoko Inouye, California's favorite Japanese sopranos, sang beautifully and with a rare technique, at the Cycloid auditorium Friday evening.

This charming young singer, attired in a gorgeous kimono, made particularly fine impression with her rendering of the Japanese folk song,

"Chin Chin Chidor," by a Japanese composer, Komei. Also her singing of the favorite piece "Shikarate," by Hirota, evoked much praise and an encore.

Sings One Fine Day

The same compositions by Petgoles, Toschi, Cadman, Yamada, Takao, Hirota, Lieurance, Arditi, Logan, Herr, Fernandez and Puocini.

Her final selection, "One Fine Day," from the celebrated opera, Madame Butterfly, by Puccini.

As an added attraction Miss Miyoko Washizuka, Klimo Nakagawa and Mary Kawashima rendered piano solos. Miss Constance Powers accompanied Miss Inouye on the piano.

Leaves Sunday

The soprano will leave for her city of Los Angeles early Sunday morning

In Los Angeles the brilliant singer, just returned from Tokyo, will present to Mayor Porter Japan's cordial acceptance of the invitation issued by the city of Los Angeles for participation in the forthcoming World Olympic games to be held in that city this summer. She will convey to Porter the letter of acceptance from Mayor Nagata of Tokyo.

Miss Inouye expects to go to Europe for a study trip sometime next year.

Here appearance here was sponsored by the Nichi Bei.

Japan Political Leader to Arrive
In S. F. Shortly

Slated to arrive here on the N.

Y. K. liner Chichibu Maru, which is due in the Golden Gate in mid-April, it Ikuo Oyama, one of Japan's political leaders, accompanied by Mrs. Oyama.

He will be in the United States during the next four or five months to study the present political and economic situation in this country, according to present plans.

Waseda Man

Following his graduation from the Waseda University in 1905, he became an instructor in the school and later continued his studies in the United States.

In fact the winners were so evenly matched that the trio of judges, James Huges, Walter Tsukamoto and John O'Neill, spent almost an hour debating before settling themselves as to who was the winner.

The nine speakers who represented various organizations in the Sacramento valley expounded their viewpoints on the topic—"Is higher education justifiable?" with ability.
Their speeches seemed to show much study and preparation.

Takashi Fujio, Kiyoshi Okamoto, Sam Kurihara, Kazumi Kuroko, Ayake Yoshimura and Alice Fujiishige were presented with exquisitely designed photograph albums as a momento of the contest.

The prize winners were awarded beautiful electric clocks.
