TAIKU TEAM PLAY SACTO CLUB SUNDAY

Capital Team Beats
Florin Twice
This Year

[Special to Japanese American News]
ALAMEDA, Apr. 13.—The strong Sacramento Wakaba nine led by managers Miyasato and Takeda will invade the local stronghold Sunday, Apr. 17, promising one of the most interesting games that have been announced in a long time.

The Capital team defeated Florin in last Sunday 9-2 to make it their second straight over the conquerors of the Stockton Yamato. Alameda has already walloped Fresno, 23-7.

Either Nakatomi or Sasabuchi will twirl for the Wakaba with Kihara behind the bat. Rokutani and Iwahashi, Alameda's old reliable, will be paired up for battery work.

In their captain, Jit Okano, the Capital nine has one of the most colorful players in northern California baseball today. He is not only a fine short patcher and also a handymen with the stick.

The local junior nine will probably tangle with Stockton Yamato bees at 12 o'clock and the varsity is set for 3:30.

SACRAMENTO, Apr. 13—Pounding favorite offerings of "Scotty" Kurima far and wide, the local Wakaba nine defeated Florin here Sunday by the score of 9-2. Nakatomi held the visitors down to two blows.

Okano led the locals with 3 hits while Ken Yamashita contributed a home run and a single while Tanaka and Ishikawa hit hard and timely.

Everybody in the ship shouted with joy over the glimpse of the island in the distance. Even Alice Takao-ka and Crony suffering from seasickness were out on the deck. I can hardly wait to set my feet on Honolulu soil! Aren't you?

TRIP TO HAWAII IN OUR MO-

TOR SHIP J. S. C.

By Mysterious Writer
With every member out on deck, our good motorship J. S. C. slowly glided into Honolulu harbor. Here, and there, a group of flying fish darted away. As we neared the pier, we were greeted by a number of expert swimmers who looked up at us and shouted, "Aloha! Aloha!"

The Mysterious Writer threw a silver coin at one of the swimmers, and all of a sudden, there was an

HARBIN SAYS MANY JAPAN TROOPS DEAD

General Jiro Tamon's
Division Killed,
is Report

TOKYO, Apr. 13.—Dispatches from Harbin, Manchuria, today said 11 Japanese soldiers were killed and 50 or more were injured when a train was wrecked on the Chinese Eastern Railway, 17 kilometers east of Harbin, last night.

A dispatch to the newspaper Nichi

Nichi said the train, carrying the rear guard of General Jiro Tamon's division, was blown up. It said 93 Japanese soldiers were injured, while the Rengo News Agency reported that 50 were hurt.

The troops were returning to Harbin from a campaign against Chinese rebels around Fang Cheng. It appeared that unidentified persons placed explosives on the tracks. The train was derailed, rolled down a 20-foot embankment and was partially burned, the dispatches said.

Buddhist, Christian
Clubs Sponsor
Fun Fest

PALO ALTO, Apr. 13.—With 150 in attendance, the joint picnic sponsored by the local Y. M. W. B. A. and the Epworth League on Sunday was a huge success.

It was an ideal day for an outing, baseball, ping pong, volleyball, ball, golf, football and swimming and all kinds of sports were enjoyed by the young people. One of the features of the day was entertainments arranged by Fred Ochihi.

Charles Inouye, harmonica solo, vocal selections by Miss Daisy Tagaki of Redwood City, George Tsukada, Rudy Vallee, Furukichi John Tachikawa of the Y. M. W. B. A. and Masaki Sasaki of the Epworth League spoke words of greetings. The whole affair was in charge of Min Yokomura and Tom Ochihi.

The Chichibu Maru is rounding out her second year of service and her twenty-third voyage between the Orient and San Francisco.

The N. Y. K. liner, Chichibu Maru, arrived in port Wednesday morning after a pleasant trip.

The big motor liner has an unusually large number of passengers, 325 of whom are for this port. She is also bringing a pretty good cargo, which includes 2115 bales of raw silk at the present market a little more than $250,000 worth.

The Chichibu is rounding out her second year of service and her twenty-third voyage between the Orient and San Francisco.

Japan Plans Welcome

Noted Opera Singer

[Special to Japanese American News]

TOKYO, Apr. 13.—A welcome is being arranged for Madame Tamaki Miura who has long been abroad and made Japanese kimono well known among the Westerners.

The prima donna is expected to arrive in Japan from Naples, Italy, aboard the Kikoku Maru, which is scheduled to be in Yokohama by May 22.

According to the plans under way

Madame Miura will make a three-month concert tour of Japan. Her first recital will be given either at the Hibiya Kokaido or at the Tokyo Theater.

Y. M. W. B. A.'s are cordially invited to the picnic provided that they furnish their own lunch.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nagase, who have been to Santa Rosa for a month on account of Mrs. Nagase's mother being ill, returned to Watsonville.

Lillian Kanemura, student at Oba's sewing school in San Francisco, came home after six months of sewing studies.
