CAPITAL GIRL TAKES SPEED RACE MEDAL

Mary Sugiyama Wins Typing Contest; 39 Entered

(Special to Japanese American News)
SACRAMENTO, Apr. 20 — Mary Sugiyama, 16 year old student of the local high school, carried off first honors Saturday in a typewriting speed contest in which 39 high school and business school pupil contestants from all over Northern California were entered.

As a reward for nimble finger work, Miss Sugiyama received a gold medal as well as a large loving cup.

The young lady is the daughter of K. Sugiyama. She is a sophomore at school where she is considered an outstanding student.

MISS MATOI IS ENGAGED

Sanger Lassie Will Marry Reedley Instructor

(Special to Japanese American News)
BERKELEY, April 20 — Miss Yo Ueyama, popular co-ed at the university was elected to pilot the Women's Japanese Student club of the University of California for the coming semester at an election held Friday.

The other officers elected are: Anne Saito, vice president; Miye Kasai, recording secretary; Margaret Saito, corresponding secretary; Fumi Yanagisawa, treasurer; Nariko Ikeda, assistant treasurer; Tatsuo Domoto, social chairman; Yukio Domoto, ath. mgr.

Miss Matoi is a graduate of a girl's high school in Japan and is at present attending a local high school.

Mr. Masumoto is a Japanese language instructor at Reedley and is noted by his pen name, Biijo, as "hoku poet."

The balsakunins for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. M. Yoshiki of Sanger and Mr. and Mrs. S. Taguchi of Reedley.

Guy Shoup Speaks At Vocation Meet

Japanese young men between the ages of sixteen and twenty-four who are interested in the vocational life are invited to attend "Find self Conference" sponsored by Central YMCA on April 29 and 30 from 7:30 p.m. at its center on Grant Ave.

The program which is in charge of Guy Shoup, attorney for the Southern Pacific, will include a speech by Ben Mallory of the University of California vocation guidance, on the principals of vocational choice; an alixing by J. F. Johnson, service manager of the Associated Oil and George Presby, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to the interesting talks over a hundred business and professional men will aid in little group and interviews discussing particular needs of each applicant.

Papers submitted on April 29 will be analyzed on May 9 according to the plan announced.

The conference is open to anyone and even though some may be skeptical as to the possibility of the Japanese youth serving a good position, much benefit can be derived even just for personal information. K. Tomizawa, secretary of the Japanese branch told the press.

There is no charge of any sort, and as the two day conference is in series, all but of those ages are advised to attend to April 29.

Further information of the conference may be had from K. Tomizawa, at the Japanese center, 1708 Sutter st.

San Juan Society Celebrates Natal Day With Odoris

(Special to Japanese American News)

SAN JUAN, Apr. 20 — With the aim of cooperating with the first generation, the San Benito County Fellowship society will celebrate the Emperor's birthday on April 30 at San Juan.

The program will include tap dances, Japanese odoris, playlets and singing of both old and new songs of the two nations.

This is the "big task" that the Fellowship society has undertaken, and all the members are working diligently to make it a huge success.

The sponsors feel that support and confidence of the first generation must be gained before attempting to better the understanding between Americans and the second generation.

Immediately after the program a dance will be given in the gym. A happy orchestra will furnish the music.

The U. I. are holding this entertainment to send delegates to the Asilomar summer conference.

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA'S STARS RACE ON SUNDAY

(Special to Japanese American News)

SACRAMENTO, Apr. 20 — Everything is readiness for the Northern California Olympiad which will be held at the local Junior college stadium on Sunday, April 24, under the auspices of the Sacramento YMCA.

Events include: 50 yards, 100 yards, 220 yards, 440 yards, 880 yards, 1-mile, 120 yard low hurdle, shot put, javelin, discus, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, football punting, relay, (110, 220, 440, 880), 880 yard relay, (4 men).

Prizes

Prizes for the winners are: perpetual trophy to the winning club or team; relay trophy to the winner of the 880 yard relay; honor trophy to the athlete scoring the highest point; and ribbons to the first, second and third place winners in each event.

The invitations to participants is issued through this paper by the Wakaba and any amateur athlete is welcome to compete, there being no charge of any kind.

The stadium is located in the track of the Junior college and is said to be one of the best in Northern California.

Donations

The sponsor is indebted to the school authorities for the use of the stadium, to Hoken Takeda, well known insurance man for the relay trophy, to Donald Kitazumi for the individual high point man trophy, and to the various business concerns for the racquet other awards.

LOWELL NET ACE DEFEATS BALBOA STAR

Harry Wakamatsu Is Now Dark Horse Contender

Harry Wakamatsu, Lowell high school light tennis star, continued on his drive Wednesday for the singles crown of the local high schools by downing Reese, Balboa net man, 8-6 in the first game and then coming back strong to win the match 6-0 in the second tilt.

The first game was a pip. The second wild card appeared evenly matched, fighting stubbornly for their points. However, the Japanese lad rallied to sweep his opponent off his feet with a flashy forehand.

Tony Hoshimura, Commerce, didn't fare so well, suffering defeat by the scores of 6-0 and 6-2 from Harry Goldman, one of the admitted contenders for the singles title.

Brown-Wakamatsu doubles team advanced another round in their battle for the doubles championship winning over Haas-Mendelson of Galileo after dropping the first game 2-6, and coming back strong to take the decision 6-4, 6-3, in the third round of play.

The former Katsuko Suzuki, according to her father in law became ill in 1931.

She was taken to the American Hospital and there submitted to 3 operations.

Rev. Angell expressed the belief that his daughter in law realized that there was no hope for her recovery and crazed by suffering decided to end her life.

Other Possible Causes

Parts dispatches reported the diminutive Japanese woman was believed to have taken her own life because of immigration laws that prevented her husband from returning to the United States.

Another reason given was that she violated the code of her ancestors when she married Joseph Warren Angell, whom she met while attending the University of California.

The U. I. are presenting a drama of one act entitled "The Forfeit." A novelty pirate dance will be given by a group of girls. The alumni of the U. I. will give a short play, "Written."

Several musical numbers will be rendered.

"Evening Bells" will be another feature number of the JUC. A dance chorus will also be given by them.

Immediately after the program a dance will be given in the gym. A happy orchestra will furnish the music.
