200 JOIN IN L.A. DISTRICT YPF PARLEY

Dr. Kawai Addresses
Young Christians
On Sincerity

LOS ANGELES, June 1.—The first district rally of the Christian young people's groups in the city and county of Los Angeles and was held at the Christian Institute church Sunday evening, with more than 200 representatives in attendance.

The long program commenced at 6 p.m. with a banquet. Danar Abe was song leader. Sam Nakamura, president of the L.A. district, was on charge of the sixties. James Nakamura, president of the S.C. federation, was in charge of the introductions.

Officers Seated

The officers were seated upon the stage of the church hall. Present were Jimmy Nakamura, president of the Y.P. federation; Yoshi Okubo, vice-pres. Misako Yassuda, sec.; Lily Satomi, corr. sec. and district officers, Sam Minami, pres.; Aiko Tashiro, vice-pres.; Pauline Nakamura, corr. sec.; Kimi Tanaka, rec. sec.; and Takeda, treas.

Dr. Kazuo Kawaii spoke on "Sincerity". Charlotte Shimidzu played the pipe organ while Alice Nakanishi played the piano on the piano. The Christian church quartet sang a song, as did the Oliver club quintet.

Quartet Sings

The Christian church quartet is composed of K. Shimadzu, Hiroshi Mukaya, Roy Yamadera, and Lincoln Shimidzu. The Oliver quintet is composed of Charles Kamayama, Hiro Higuchi, Sam Shugo, and Kenji Senju.

A offering for the destitute Japanese in Mexico was taken during the devotional period.

The Japanese churches represented at the rally were Methodist Episcopal, Boyle Heights Baptist, Gardena Baptist, San Pedro Baptist, Hollywood Independent, Reformed church, Union church, Montebello Congregational, and Christian church.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLUB

Conducted by AUNT PEGGY

From Irene Minakata, Rt. 1 Box 804, Stockton, Calif.

"Hello, everybody! How are you all? Studying for the final exam? Some of us are having summer vacation already. For me, it will start within few weeks. Isn't that nice? I wish I were you! What's Auntie's having vacation too in Fresno? Yes, I'm having vacation, but I have to do so much around the house, the little yellow house that I have to keep while my mother is working. We're having lovely weather in Fresno nowadays. But from now on it'll get hotter and hotter until I simply must go wading in the bathtub.

Let's see who these letter are from. Grace Tamimoto of 1475 O'Farrell St., S.F.

"Dear Aunt Peggy, how are you? I hope you are fine. Yes, I'm fine. Grace, I'm doing well. How is dear old San Francisco? And how have you been, dear? I'm fine as usual. Auntie, I am an old member. When I joined this club I was 11."
