BOLD THUGS LOOT GRANT AVE. STORE

2 Unmasked Bandits Hold up The Ginza Flee With $56

Two unmasked bandits, both white held up and robbed The Ginza, 9 Grant ave., Japanese art shop, Friday evening about 8:40 p.m. They fled with a cash loot of $56.40.

Norman Sato, an employee, was in the store when two men in a car stopped in front of the shop and entered, requesting that they be shown some kimonos. When about to take them to the rear, Sato, a former Livingston youth, suddenly felt the jerk of a gun pressed against his ribs.

Hands Up "Stick 'em and be quick!" was the order.

Sato was forced to open the cash register, after which he was locked up in a basement. The robber evidently fled in his car.

It was not until thirty minutes later that he was able break open the basement door and notify the police.

Iino's Store The first of the two bandits possessed a dark complexion, was about 35 years old, 5 feet 5 inches high, and 140 lbs., and wore a grey suit and hat.

The Ginza is a branch store of the Pacific Trading Co., of which K. Iino is president. Sato is at present attending Heald's Business college in addition to working at The Ginza.
