BODY FOUND WITH 9 CUTS IN BRAWLEY

Death of Japanese Is Laid by Police to Foul Play

[Special to Japanese American News] BRAWLEY, June 16—The police today were nearing the solution of a ghastly crime, the murder of a Japanese, whose body was found by a farmer in an irrigation canal Tuesday morning in an irrigation canal two miles west of Westmoreland. Nine knife-wounds were found on the body.

Otez had stopped his car near the scene because of tire troubles, when he espied the body. Two cards were found on the body. One was a 1918 civilian registration card, and the other a card signifying his registration in February, 1932, for the presidential primaries.

The name on the cards was Harry Akiyama, Eagle hotel, Los Angeles. As no relative or friend of the dead man was found, the body is at present in the keeping of the county sheriff.

A detective who has this case under observation believes that the murder was executed by several days previous and the body was brought to the Imperial valley and abandoned in the canal.

One of the nine wounds caused by knife-thrusts had pierced the heart, it was revealed at the inquest.

How's everybody anyway? Enjoying her vacation? Gee, it's so hot in Fresno that I don't know whether I'm enjoying the vacation or suffering from the heat. Put, purr! Quick, tell Auntie about the cool climate and about snow in some of the Eastern states.

The Unbeliever

you members from the cool states. Oh, I know what is the quickest way to forget the heat. It is by chatting with you in our cool cozy corner. Oh, I see somebody is very sympathetic with Auntie for being tormented by the heat. Let's read the letter from Helen Aoki, Rt. 2 Box 103-B, Gardena, Calif. "Auntie, I was much surprised to hear that you are in Fresno, the hottest place in Calif. (The hottest place in Calif. is right, Helen. Oh, well, it can't be complaining too much for Fresno climate is responsible for producing such excellent grapes). "May I share the heat with you? I'm very hot sitting on the porch reading your jolly section. Auntie, I never missed reading the section yet and I have all filled since February 10 to June 8, 1932. Good girl! Salute your club spirit, Helen. Well, Auntie, I'll be visiting you some day. I do have lots of time to dream. Goodbye. Tell the member to write to me." (Goodbye Helen. Come on and chat with us again.) A very interesting letter came from Helen Aoki, a very interesting person who is anxious to make acquaintance with the members of this club. "Here we are in sunny California at last. We arrived here two days ago from Caldwell, New Jersey. This is Wade Hiroshi Douglas speaking—who wishes to become
