AUTO KILLS MAN, 45, IN NIGHT CRASH

Takahashi Is Injured In Atherton, Dies In Palo Alto

The victim of an automobile accident, Shosaburo Takahashi, 45, received a fatal injury near midnight Thursday near Atherton station, and died a few hours later at the Palo Alto hospital. Takahashi, who is employed as a domestic by A.L. Amos of Atherton, returned from San Francisco, where he visited friends, and was walking homeward on Atherton ave. from the Southern Pacific depot, when he was suddenly blinded by the headlights of an automobile coming toward him in front. He swerved to evade it, when another car from the rear ran over him. He was rushed to the Palo Alto hospital by the driver of the machine that struck him. M. Aoki, J. Ideno, and Imamura, all friends of Takahashi's in San Francisco, hurried early Thursday morning to Palo Alto to arrange for the interment of the body. Stockton Man Back With Vienna Bride

Stockton Man Back With Vienna Bride

STOCKTON, July 1.—Returning from years of medical study in Vienna, Dr. Kensuke Uchida, physician and surgeon of this city, arrived in Stockton last Saturday with his Vienna bride. The two were married in Vienna and honeymooned to Cuba, where the bride's parents are now residing. Dr. Uchida and his wife are at present staying in Hotel Lincoln.

Monterey Buddhists Honor Graduates With Weenie Party at Asilomar Seaside

[Special to Japanese American News] MONTEREY, July 1.—On the night of June 27, the local Y.W.B.A. feted the graduates of both High School and Grammar School with a weenie bake at Asilomar. The bonfire was built between the sand dunes and from a distance, it gave one an impression of a typical gypsy camp situated on a lonely desert. Some, after having filled themselves to their heart's content with weenies, buns, pickles, soda pops, bananas, and oranges, listed in playing cards, while others who were lovers of music, listened to the soft music of the phonograph.

SOCIAL UNREST CAUSES GIRLS TO JOIN RADICALS

[Special to Japanese American News] TOKYO, July 1.—Alarmed at the increasing number of girls with the least interest in radicalism are easily induced into learning something about the principle of radicalism for the sake of their common-sense and pride. Every school has a faction of Young People Association, and these organs pounce at every opportunity to increase their membership. It is easy to imagine that the revolutionary theory of Marx easily takes hold of the emotion of these girls. The recent outbreak of radicalism among the girl students of the Musical academy here is caused fundamentally by their desire to revolt against an old-fashioned educational system.

L.A. PARTY RESCUED IN BOAT WRECK

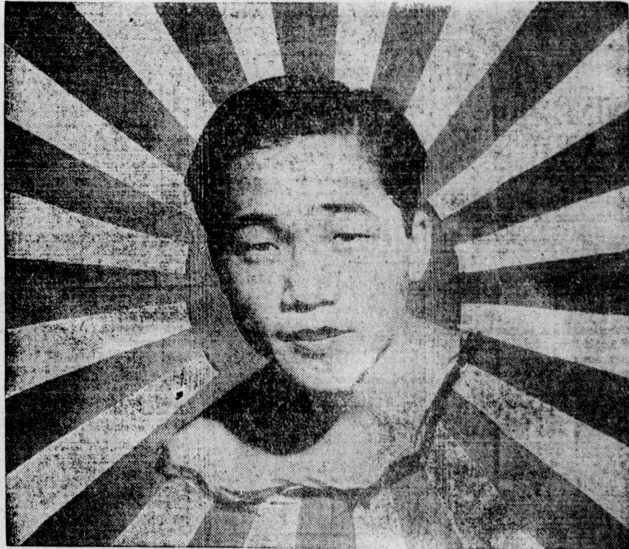

Yacht Capsizes Three Saved by U.S. Sailors

[Special to Japanese American News] LOS ANGELES, July 1.—T. Yoshida, of East San Pedro, and three companions escaped a watery death late Sunday afternoon when his little sailing vessel capsized in a sudden gust of wind more than three miles off shore. They were rescued by an American warship. Planning for a gay cruise on the yacht, the four young men, T. Yoshida, owner; George Hamano, Nobu Nakamura, and Ted Uyematsu, left East San Pedro's Fish Harbor Sunday afternoon before a fair wind. Boat Overturns A damaged cable was discovered after a three hour cruise. Sailing with the wind to the aft, George Hamano stood upon the narrow deck to fix the shroud-line. At that moment, according to one of the party, a sudden change in the breeze caused the boat to overturn. George Hamano was caught in the shroud-line which he had been attempting to fix. He however, managed to free himself. All four youths clung desperately to the drifting yacht. Saved By Warship Heavy swells washed over the boat. For two hours the four young men hung on, once sighting another yacht to which they signaled frantically, only to be mistaken for a party of swimmers enjoying a long swim. They were later rescued by a boat manned by eight sailors of one of the battleships moored in San Pedro harbor. The yacht was towed to Brighton beach.

Satoh Bows to Austin In Wimbledon Clash

WIMBLEDON (England), July 1.—Ellsworth Vines Jr., American champion, and H. W. (Bunny) Austin, England's first ranking player, today won their way to the finals of the Wimbledon tennis championships and on Saturday will play the first Anglo-American final in the fifty-five years of the tournament. Vines ran over Jack Crawford, Australia's Davis Cup star, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3, to win his final berth, and Austin had an almost equally easy match with Jiro Satoh of Japan, 7-5, 6-2, 6-1.

The Japanese Typhoon In A Happy Mood

10,000 WILL SEE TEIKEN FIGHT VILLA

Joe Picked by Frayne Of Call to Knock Foe Out

SACRAMENTO, July 1.—Their heavy training at an end, Joe Teiken of Japan and Little Pancho of Manila are taking things easy for their internationalistic engagement Saturday night at Moring ball park. The match, a ten round affair, has attracted so much attention in northern California that a crowd of 10,000 light fans will be on hand to see the battle, according to Matchmaker Johnny Sylvester's check on the big advance sale. Here is what the critics say about the fight: Howard Smith, San Francisco Chronicle, "There is absolutely nothing to base the prediction of the outcome because neither man has fought a man either has met. It is a question of experience. Since Villa has the most experience, I pick Villa." Pat Frayne, San Francisco Call-Bulletin, "I still pick Teiken to win. He will knock Villa out."

NORTH DOUBLES CONCEDED VICTORY IN CLASSIC TILT

By HUNCAN IKEZOE "Who will win the North-South tennis classic Sunday?" The annual South-North tennis tournament is getting closer and closer. The interest on this question has increased by leaps and bounds. In singles, Fred Shimura, last year's captain for the North, will again take care of No. 1 position, while Nebo Shimura, the present San Francisco Japanese open title holder, and Paul Kasugai, the best doubles team on the Southern list. But Endo-Kogura, playing No. 2 team for the South, are the favorites over Miho-Furuki. Watching the Shimura brothers play against Stratford-Brown at the California State tennis tourney a few days ago, it is apparent that they are at top form. But not much is expected from Furuki-Miho team, due to the lack of practice. The battle between Fred Shimura and Endo is singles will be the main feature of the day. But the prediction forecasts victory for Shimura. North Will Win Nebo Shimura will oppose against Maeno, while Kasugai meets with Kawasaki. Anything might happen in these two games and will decide the meet. As Willie Shimura is not on the squad, the North is depending on a Nebo Shimura. South without Yoshikawa, No 2 player will face the tough race against the North this year. I would not be surprised if the North wins by three matches to two.

Mutsu Bepp to Talk To Junior Endeavor

Mutsu Bepp will speak on "Our Father," at the Junior Christian Endeavor society meeting of the local Reformed church Sunday morning, July 3, 11 a.m. Rev. Y. Saito will speak on "Christian Patriotism," during the morning service, also at 11 a.m.

SAC'TO SET FOR RECITAL

Pupils of Miss Ruby Ishikawa Planning Concert July 2 SACRAMENTO, July 1.—The pupils of Miss Ruby Ishikawa will give a piano recital at the Presbyterian Church on July 2, at 8:15 p.m. Everyone is cordially welcome to attend the recital.

4 GIRLS TO JOIN PARLEY Delegates from Reijo Kai of Sac'to Chosen

SACRAMENTO, July 1.—At a special meeting called Monday, Edna Nishida, Yuriko Date, Rosie Namimoto and Tamako Nishimura were chosen delegates to the San Francisco Buddhists convention in July. Reverend Tatsushima and Nagafuji will be chaperones.

STOCKTON TO PLAY FLORIN

STOCKTON, July 1.—Remaining home for the holidays, the Stockton Yamatos will tackle the Florin Y.M.B.A. nine on the Fourth of July at the Yamato Grounds, starting at 2:30 o'clock. In an effort to dazzle the eyes of the locals, the Florin athletes will appear in their brand new depression-proof uniforms of maroon and grey. Kimura and Tanaka will start for the Yamatos. Travelling to San Jose last Sunday, the Yamatos returned home with the bacon, a 9-6 victory over the Asahi. Although trailing 4-3 at the end of the fifth frame, the Stocktonians nosed forward to secure a three-point lead by the end of the game. Mirikiani and Tanaka were the batteries for the Yamatos.

50 Participate in Centerville Dance

CENTERVILLE, July 1.—About fifty young people of Washington township enjoyed the dance given by the graduates of Washington High school in the local gymnasium on June 24. Miss Masako Hirabayashi and James Takesaka were awarded a box of candy apiece for winning the prize waltz. Music was furnished by the Joy boys. Guests were present from Alameda, Salinas, Hayward, and Mountain View.

Scouts Win Awards In Costume Contest

"Ol Sol" rose majestically over the distant skyline ushered into the lives of the boys at Camp Circle 12, another happy day on June 28. The day's program was carried on except for one event. The officers sat in their tents all afternoon, bending over books and poring over papers. What was it? Prizes Awarded After dark, around the campfire, Tokuo Fujimoto, Yoshio Otsu, Masao Yamamachi and Harry Takahashi were given awards for having participated in the costume night program of June 28. Then, the scouts learned the "why" of the queer actions of the officers. An inter-patrol treasure hunt was to be held. Treasure Hunt Three routes were selected, one for each patrol. Seven notes were concealed in each route, all finally leading to the last note. From the start to the finish of the hunt, every boy was on his toes. It was fun decoding mysterious messages and racing madly for the indicated spots, only to search madly for the next message. Nakamura Finds It With all hands frantically looking for the last note, Katsuo Nakamura's sharp eyes found the final message pinned on the bottom of the Troop's rowboat, giving the Cobras the honor of winning. The exciting evening was topped off with marsh-mallows while the Cobras received swimming hats for the victory.
