S. F. SINGER MAKES GOOD IN WARFIELD

Kikugawa Given Trial
Appearance at Fox
Next Week

Tomatsu Kikugawa, son of the proprietor of the Shōwa Low, popular China meshi house on Post street, crashed the gate in the theatrical world Monday evening at the Warfield here with a song number, and made good.

Kikugawa sang so well that the audience, realising his talent, applauded him profusely, calling him to the curtain again and again.

Tomatsu will appear for a week at the Fox in the near future as the result of his showing Monday, the West Coast's people announced. Should the young man repeat his performance with popular approval, he will be given a contract.

GOLFER OFF FOR NIPPON

Miyamoto Takes Part
In Many Tourneys
While in U. S.

Tomekichi Miyamoto, Japan's golfing ambassador, sailed Thursday from home on the Tatsuta Maru after tour that led him half way around the world.

He came here last December to compete in the National Sun Lake Merritt, then went to Southern California, thence to Texas and up the Atlantic coast, playing exhibition matches and in tournaments. Miyamoto sailed from New York to England where he competed in the British open, finishing outside of the money. He took passage back to New York and played in the U. S. open at Fresh Meadows, near Flushing, Long Island.

After going on a short exhibition tour with Walter Hagen, he entered the Canadian open. Then, after finishing that tourney, he came straight to San Francisco in time to sail Thursday.
